Rev. McGuinness To Bless Statue Built By Couple

The Rev. Patrick J. McGuinness will officially bless a statue of the Virgin Mary in their back yard this Saturday at 3 p.m.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Mata, of 22978 Cabrillo, have built a statue of Mary in a rock garden in their back yard. The statue is built of rock. The Matas were looking for a rock garden and happened to see a similar idea in another city. As far as they know, theirs is the only one in this area.
They have made the statue the center of a small shrine. The public is invited to view the Saturday ceremonies.

Harbor Crusade Enters Second Week of Meets

The current Harbor crusade of old time revival meetings concludes the first week of a scheduled 22-day series with special subjects announced by Evangelist Pete Riggs, Jacksonville, Ill., former night club tycoon, now appearing in a 1500-seat gospel tent at Pacific Coast Hwy near Vermont.
Under the auspices of 40 Harbor area churches representing many denominations, the series opened last Sunday afternoon.
Assisting Riggs are Norman Nelson, prominent southern California television and recording artist and one of the nation's foremost gospel lyric tenors who serves as soloist-songleader for the series and Les Barnett, organist-accompanist, former motion picture and radio musician who is famous as "Christian poet of the organ."
Riggs will speak Friday evening at 7:30 on "The Three Baloney Peddlers." His Sunday 3 p.m. sermon subject will constitute a dramatization of the "Great White Throne Judgment" in which the evangelist will dramatize all roles in the story.
Services are held nightly at 7:30 except Sunday when the meeting is at 3 o'clock to make it possible for all who wish to do so to attend their own churches.
Talent auditions for children will be held Saturday morning at 10 a.m. under youth activities chairman Rev. Roy Wilkins of the Lomita Missionary Church and music chairman Everett Mills, of Los Angeles. Talented children are urged to attend and take part.

Christians Form Young Adult Club

A charter meeting of the Young Adult Fellowship at the First Christian Church will be held Sunday at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, of 1738 Manuel Ave.
The Parkers, along with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Linton, attended the Labor Day conference at Camp Seelye. After learning about similar organizations at other churches, they decided to form one here.
The group will meet once a month in the home of a member.
Rev. Milton Sippel, minister of the First Christian Church, will give a series of three talks on the history of the church, starting Sunday. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

South Bay Baptists Will Note Third Anniversary on Sunday

The third anniversary of the founding of the Sunday School of the South Bay Baptist Church, 4658 Sharynne Lane, Seaside Rancho will be celebrated on Sunday as the promotion exercises are held.
According to Gerald W. Stevenson, Sunday School superintendent, all classes will be advanced with these - earning pins under the cross and crown system being recognized. Third grade classes advancing will receive Bibles as has been the custom.
The Sunday School has one of the most modern crib-nursery facilities in this area and classes are maintained from it through young-adult and adult groups. Sunday School convenes each Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock.
Rev. George F. Cain, pastor, will preach at both services Sunday and on "What Lack I" at the morning service at 11. At the conclusion of the morning message, new members will be received and the Lord's Supper will be observed. Junior Church and crib-nursery care is provided during the morning worship hour.
Rev. Cain's topic at the 7:30 o'clock evening service, will be "Bible Pitchers."
Youth groups will meet at 6:30 o'clock.
